

J. K. (Jack) Chambers is a professor at the University of Toronto and a prize winning author and teacher on music and language.

<http://homes.chass.utoronto.ca/~chambers>

In his vocation as a jazz writer, he has published biographies of Miles Davis (Milestones: The Music and Times of Miles Davis (1998) and Richard Twardzik (Bouncin' with Bartok: The Incomplete Works of Richard Twardzik (2008).

For many years, Chambers has made annual presentations to the Toronto Duke Ellington Society and extended versions of some of them was published in his Duke Ellington anthology Sweet Thunder (2019).

The texts and playlists of his annual presentations are available at the archive section of torontodukeellingtonsociety.com.